

Lenten Prayer Chain Instructions

Cut the pages along the dotted lines. This will give you long, narrow, strips of paper. Each will have a designated prayer and intention.

Staple a strip together to form a circle (face the writing toward the inside of the circle). Then make a second circle with a second strip of paper, but before stapling it together loop it through the first circle so the two are connected together. Continue to add a new circle to the last circle you created. This should form a long chain.

Once all your paper strips are connected to your chain, hang your chain up where you will remember to remove one link each day during Lent.

Pick a special time each day to remove the paper loop on the end of the chain. Then say the prayer which is listed on that chain link for the special intention which is also listed on that link.

If you start this activity on Ash Wednesday the chain can also double as a countdown to Easter!

Have a blessed Lent!

Lent

A time to put the Alleluias away
and then
sacrifice and pray.
